

The Comma Worksheet 2

Commas – Let's Separate Things

Commas are used to separate things in a list.

Example: I like to walk, run, and play sports.

Read each sentence.

Add commas to separate the things in the list.

1. We had chicken mashed potatoes and corn for dinner.
2. There were spoons forks and knives on the table.
3. After school I will read do homework and go to bed.
4. Yellow blue brown green and blue are my favorite colors.
5. The salad has lettuce tomatoes and dressing.
6. I help at the soup kitchen homeless shelter and baseball game.
7. Jamie Sue and Jackie are all best friends.
8. Monday Tuesday and Wednesday are my favorite days.
9. January March November and December are my favorite months.
10. My parents my brother my sister and my aunt came over.
11. I like to eat read and pray before I go to sleep.
12. We measure length using inches feet yards and miles.
13. We measure capacity using pints quarts and gallons.