

1. What once started as a local credit __ U __ developed later on into a fully-fledged global crisis.
2. Inexperienced or impatient investors try to __ V __ during downturn, others, who can afford it use this chance to cheaply purchase those assets.
3. Cobalt and other rare earth elements are presently a desirable C _____ T _ which many corporations want to buy.
4. As Poland lost most of its _____ G ___ S ___ as a result of WW II, the remaining part of society was unable to restore previous level of scientific work.
5. _____ R _____ assets are a hot potato that most businessmen try to get rid of, for some though, they offer an opportunity, as bought cheaply, they may yet regain its value.
6. No years of studies will replace business ___ M __, you either have some business flair or not.
7. One of the ways for a state to raise needed capital is to issue S _____ _ O __ S in which many citizens invest as they are risk free.
8. All incoming and outgoing finances must be registered by an accountant in a ___ G ___ .
9. Many people who managed to accumulate impressive wealth are quite __ U ___ and see no need of fancy things- this is partly why they are so affluent.
10. Her area of expertise __ A __ from property market to heavy industry.