Family Island Administrators

- They were once called commissioners
- They have been around for over 150 years!
- Some of their duties include:
  - Acting as local magistrates in minor court cases.
  - Being in charge of the post office
  - Secretary to the local government
  - Record births, marriages and deaths
  - Ensure government money is used properly i.e. on roads, docks and government buildings.

LIVEWORKSHEETS