

Magnets

A. Label the different types of magnets using the drop-down option in the box.(6 marks)

B. We can use magnet for many ways. Use the drop-down option to state how magnet is used for each item below.

i. compass
ii. credit card
iii. speaker

C. Fill in the blanks by dragging the word and drop it into the correct box.

iron	unlike	Lodestone	nickel	like	repel
end	steel	North-South	attract	cobalt

1. Magnets are made from _____.
2. Not all metals are magnetic. some metals that can attract to magnet are _____, _____, _____, _____.
3. When a magnet is hung freely and come to rest (stop moving) it will point to the _____ direction.
4. When two _____ poles are brought together, they push each other away. They will _____ each other.
5. When two _____ poles are brought together, they pull each other together. They will _____ each other.
6. The strongest part of a magnet is at the _____ of both poles.

D. Fill in the blanks by dragging the word and drop it into the correct box.

