

Match the words. One word is extra.

greedy	courageous
cowardly	organised
sociable	honest
sensitive	reserved
intelligent	generous
forgetful	thick-skinned
extra word	silly

Complete the sentences. The first letters are given.

My sister Pam is a (s) _____ girl. She's got a lot of friends. She's also (w) _____ and has a good sense of humour. She's got a (h) _____ of gold. She always helps people in need. Pam is a (c) _____ girl as well. She knows what to do in any situation. However, she can be (b) _____ at times: she likes telling other people what to do. In addition, she's a bit (s) _____. She doesn't change her opinion when she isn't right.

Write the comparative or superlative degree of the adjectives in brackets.

In summer Alex went to a sports camp where he made a lot of friends. He became (sociable) _____ than he used to be. Football was (popular) _____ game in the camp. Alex liked it, too. A lot of exercise helped him to become much (fit) _____. He is back at school now. He has become a bit (tall) _____ and he is (strong) _____.

boy in his class. Alex is going to study hard this year to get (good) marks than last year.

Correct the mistakes.

1. Keven used to lived in the city centre.
2. What did I used to look like?
3. My friend doesn't use to wear glasses when she was younger.
4. Mary is a creative student. In addition, she is disorganised.
5. My granny is the most kind-heart person I know.
6. What does your brother like? — He is imaginative, patient and quite intelligent.