

➔ KNOW HOW TO

Identify animal tracks

Animals leave tracks on the ground. We can identify animals because they leave different tracks.

Let's find out which animal attacked the goat.

1 What kind of animal attacked the goat? Read and tick (✓).

☐

It is a herbivore.

☐

It is a carnivore.

☐

It is small.

☐

It is big.

☐

It is a mammal.

☐

It is a bird.

2 Look at the animals and their tracks. Match.

goat

lynx horse

3 Which animal attacked the goat? Write.

REVISION

1 Write T (true) or F (false). Then, correct the false sentence.

Amphibians have got bare skin.

☐

Mammals and amphibians are vertebrates.

☐

Birds and fish are invertebrates.

☐

Invertebrates haven't got an internal skeleton.

☐

2 Complete the table.

Has it got bones?
Is it oviparous?
Has it got wings?
Type of animal

SHOW YOUR SKILLS

3 Choose one of these activities:

A. Find information about a marine animal. Write about its characteristics.

B. Draw an insect and label
 the parts of its body.