How to make a frozen piecrust look (and taste) homemade for your pies

Ingredients:

- 2 piecrust frozen pie crusts, deep-dish works best
- Milk or half and half
- Dts of sugar
- Dts of cinnamon

Procedures:

1. Thaw the pie crusts.
2. Place pie filling into one crust. Fruit pies, such as apple work best.
3. Put in a generous amount of the filling so it rounds up in the center.
4. Carefully turn the second pie crust on top of the filling.
5. Pin it down tight so it will look like a real pie, but don't seal it.
6. Pinch the edges together so you won't have a homemade crust, or put around the crust with a fork to make a sealed edge.
7. Cut some slits into the top.
8. Brush on milk or half and half.
9. Sprinkle on sugar and cinnamon.
10. Bake on pie recipe requires or until golden brown.
