

Name: _____

Class: _____

Task 1: Listen. Complete the chart. Use the choices and reasons from the box.

become invisible read people's minds learn about earlier cultures understand people travel through time wouldn't lose privacy

	Nick	Claudia	Ramon

Super power Choice
Reason for Choice

Task 2: Match the two halves to make sentences. Draw lines.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. If I could fly, | a. where would you go first? |
| 2. If you could go anywhere in the world, | b. she'd choose to read people's minds. |
| 3. If I were the teacher, | c. I'd visit my grandparents in Madrid every weekend. |
| 4. If Dotty could have one super power, | d. I'd plan a surprise every Friday! |

Task 3: Ask questions. Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- If you _____ me, would you transfer to another school? (be)
- If you _____ anywhere in the world, where would you live? (can live)
- If you _____ at lightning speed, would you compete in the Olympics? (can run)
- If you _____ only one wish, what would you wish for? (can make)

Task 4: Complete the dialogue. Use the words or phrases from the box.

be invisible have superhuman strength read people's minds travel through time

Lola: I don't get this whole superhero thing. Why are these characters so popular?

Bill: Oh, come on! It's fun. Didn't you ever want to _____ so you could lift up something heavy, like a bus? 1.

Lola: OK. Strength is one thing but wanting to _____?
People can't just completely disappear like that! And some people might be good at guessing what you're thinking but do you think anyone could actually
_____? If they could, it would be awful!
3.

Bill: Maybe. But tell the truth. Wouldn't you like to _____ and visit the past or future? 4.

Lola: You bet! I'd love to see what will be happening a hundred years from now!

Task 5: Complete the sentences. Use the words or phrases in brackets and your own information.

1. (have superhuman strength)
If I _____.
2. (read people's minds)
If I _____.
3. (travel back through time)
If I _____.

Task 6: Which superhuman power would be the most useful. Explain your choice and say how you would use this power. Write three or four sentences.
