

How has travelling shaped your life?

Well, although it was great to 1 so many people, from a variety of cultures and backgrounds, living off the 2 track in a foreign country without any close friends can be very 3 . So, it's at times like these in such secluded places when you appreciate the 4 of family. You know the old saying, 'home is where the heart is' is very true when moving to a 5 new country for the first time. I think that I mightn't appreciate my husband and children as much if I 6 had the support of my family. Yeah, I have to say, travelling has 7 made me aware of what's important in life.
