

Life Skills: Weekly Chores - Mopping

Draw a line to the picture of the lady mopping the floors.

Draw a line to the picture of the man vacuuming the carpet.

Draw a line to the picture of the man dusting

To clean our floors, we need to use a floor cleaner, water, a mop and a bucket.

Draw a line to the picture of the floor cleaner.

Draw a line to the picture of the water.

Draw a line to the picture of the mop.

Draw a line to the picture of the bucket.

A floor cleaner is needed to mop the floor.

click the matching picture of the floor
cleaner.

Click the word that matches the picture

floor cleaner

mop

Water is needed to mop the floor.

Click the matching picture of water.

Click the word that matches the picture.

A mop is needed to mop the floor.

Click the matching picture of the mop.

Click the word that matches the picture.

floor cleaner

mop

A bucket is needed to mop the floor.

Click the matching picture of a bucket.

Click the word that matches the picture.

bucket
water

The best way to clean our floors is to mop them every week. This helps get rid of dirt and germs and keeps our homes clean. Click the picture of the floors being mopped.

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

Click the pictures of the floors that need to be mopped.

Mopping floors is an example of a weekly chore.

Click the matching picture of the lady mopping the floors.

Click the sentence that describes the picture.

Making the bed

Mopping floors