Verbs: to be, to have, to do

Read the sentences carefully. Is the sentence present or past? Type or write the correct form of the verbs.

1.to be

a) He working in the garden now.

b) They planting lots of tomatoes this year.

c) She fell off a ladder when she pruning a tree. She in hospital for two weeks.

d) Winter a quiet time in the garden.

e) It good weather for gardening today.

f) Last week it cold and rainy.

g) We went to the tulip farm. We very happy to see the beautiful flowers.

h) You a very good gardener! Your garden beautiful.

i) I 90 years old. My garden too big for me.

j) There a wedding at the Botanic Gardens last weekend.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2.to have

a) He likes gardening but he only a small garden on the balcony.

b) They a big garden now. Before, they a small one.

c) Every day I many jobs to do in the garden.

d) We are lucky. We a greenhouse and a hot house.

e) They a gardener who comes every week.

f) Last week we a lot of rain.

g) He an accident in the garden last year.

h) Many people accidents in the garden.

i) They cut all the trees down! Now the garden no shade. Before, it lots of shade.

j) Warrane a community garden. People work together in the garden.

k) They bought their old house last year. The garden was a mess: They to do a lot of work.

l) Their garden many fruit trees. They always lots of fruit. But last year there was a storm and they no fruit.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3.to do

a) He always a lot of gardening but not much housework.

b) They three hours' weeding last Sunday.

c) Every weekend I some gardening.

d) Last week we some pruning.

e) It not rain for two months last year.

f) you cut the grass yesterday?

g) Jan likes flowers but she not like gardening.

h) you have herbs in your garden?

i) The garden looks good. You a great job yesterday!

j) they go to Bunnings to get some tomatoes on the weekend?

k) Which season of the year you like the most?

l) You are very good. You always a lot of work for the community garden.

LIVEWORKSHEETS