EVENT	DESCRIPTION
15.	During 1861 and 1865 all ships were prevented from using the ports in the Southern States.
16.	During 1920 to 1933 Americans could not buy, sell, make, import or export liquor. Hence, many people in The Bahamas became involved in the smuggling of liquor into America.
17.	During 1939-1945 many Americans went to Europe to fight in World War II, as a result there was a shortage of men to work the farms and food factories. Hence, this led to an agreement between The Bahamas government and America; which allowed people from the Bahamas to work on farms and factories in America.
18.	During the 1980's many ships were caught by the tricky currents around these islands and swept ashore. Some ships were deliberately attracted on to the cays and reefs by false lights. Then the goods on board were carried away and then later sold.
