On holiday.

Ex.1.Read texts 1-4 and match them with photos A-D. Then listen and check.

Normally we stay in England for our holidays, but this year I'm very happy because we aren't camping! Yes, this year we're on holiday in Spain, and we're staying in a nice apartment. Look ... Mum and Dad are sunbathing by the pool. My brother isn't sunbathing. He's probably playing football on the beach. 1.

Hi! Me again. And here's Dad. He's cooking something on the barbecue. He never cooks at home. He's cooking ... er... What is that exactly? I think he's cooking chicken. Oh no, Dad, it's black! 2.

Right. Hello. Today we're cycling in the mountains. My dad isn't cooking, so we aren't having his 'special' black barbecue chicken today. We're in a nice little cafe and here's Matt. He's eating ... What is it? Portella? Platella? No, paella! He's eating paella. 3.

OK. Here I am with my mum and we're shopping in town. Mum is looking at the flamenco dresses. She thinks she's a flamenco dancer. Oh dear, now she's dancing. I don't believe it. Right - I'm not staying here. 4.

Ex.2. Read the texts again and complete the sentences with one, two or three words.

This year,Becky and her family _____ in England.

Becky's brother _____ the pool.

Her dad only _____ when he's _____ holiday.

They're at a nice cafe in _____.

Becky prefers the cafe food to Dad's special _____.

Becky's mum likes the _____ dresses, but Becky doesn't want to _____ with her.
