

Past Tense and Present Perfect Practice

Instructions: Conjugate the verb in parentheses. You have to decide whether you should use past tense or present perfect tense.

1. I (go) _____ to a movie with Amy last night.
2. I (see) _____ many movies with Amy since we met.
3. Frank (play) _____ soccer since he was a little boy.
4. Bill (be) _____ in Chicago for two weeks.
5. I (read) _____ many books since summer began. Last week, I (read) _____ three mystery novels.
6. For several years, medical researchers around the world (do) _____ a lot of research on different diseases.
7. Our lives (change) _____ a lot in the past month.
8. Yesterday in my psychology class, I (learn) _____ why some people are afraid of being in a small crowded space.
9. I (know) _____ Diana for several years, but I just recently (discover) _____ that she has a twin sister.
10. Cindy (borrow) _____ some of my things last month and still (return, not) _____ them.

Verb Practice

Instructions: Conjugate the simple form verb into the simple past and past participle.

Simple Form	Simple Past	Past Participle
1. Do	_____	_____
2. Eat	_____	_____
3. Begin	_____	_____
4. Have	_____	_____
5. See	_____	_____