

Grammar tracks

Adjetives superlatives

Geographical Wonders

• One syllable adjectives ending in -e take only -st: large → The largest

• One syllable adjectives ending in consonant, vowel, consonant double the consonant and take -est hot → The hottest big → The biggest

• Two syllable adjectives ending in -y
y changes to i and take -est noisy → The noisiest heavy → The heaviest

short adjectives

The + est
tall → The tallest

irregular adjectives

Good → The best

Bad → The worst

Far → The farthest/ furthest

long adjectives

The most difficult → The most difficult

Listen, repeat and learn.

I'm	tall.
You're	young.
He's	noisy.
She's	big.
It's	strange.
We're	intelligent.
They're	interesting.

I'm	the tallest
You're	the youngest
He's	the noisiest
She's	the biggest
It's	the strangest
We're	the most intelligent
They're	the most interesting

person

place

animal

people

animals

in the world.

our class.

my family.

VOCABULARY

TALL

SHORT

OLD

YOUNG

SMALL

BIG

strange intelligent interesting

Scary

hot

cold

difficult

easy

DANGER

SAFETY

What Is This?

Tall

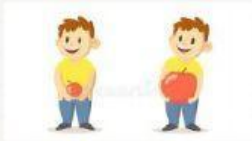

Young

Noisy

Big

Cold

Dangerous

Order the sentences. Listen and check.

What/world / is / the / the / highest / in /mountain / ?

highest / world / The /the / Mount Everest / in / mountain / is is/What/world / the / the / widest / in / river / ?

The / river / the / world / widest / is / Amazon / the / in What / populated / country / is / most / the / in / world / the /?

The /the / China / most / country/world / populated / in /is