

PRESENT CONTINUOUS AND LEISURE ACTIVITIES

Complete the sentences with the present continuous. Use the verbs in brackets.

- Paul _____ (play) tennis at the moment.
- I _____ (do) gymnastics now.
- My friends _____ (go) swimming today.
- Elisa _____ (do) gymnastics now.
- Steve and Oliver _____ (play) table tennis at the moment.
- You _____ (read) a book now.
- Your parents _____ (go) hiking today.
- Your brother _____ (do) archery at the moment.
- I _____ (play) volleyball now.
- My brother and my sister _____ (go) running this afternoon.

Read the affirmative sentences given and make negative and interrogative sentences as in the example.

Examples:

Affirmative: Mary is playing tennis now.	Affirmative: They are playing tennis now.
Negative: Mary isn't playing tennis now.	Negative: They aren't playing tennis now.
Interrogative: Is Mary playing tennis now?	Interrogative: Are they playing tennis now?

- The children are doing judo at the moment.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

- Michael is going mountain biking today.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

- Helen and Jessica are doing gymnastics now.

Negative: _____

Affirmative: _____

- Your mother is reading a magazine right now.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

Read the questions below and answer the questions using short answers as in the examples.

Examples:

Interrogative: Is Mary playing tennis now?	Interrogative: Are they playing tennis now?
Affirmative: Yes, she is.	Affirmative: Yes, they are.
Negative: No, she isn't.	Negative: No, they aren't.

Interrogative

- Is James playing basketball with his friends now?
- Are your grandparents watching TV at the moment?
- Is Vanessa going abseiling today?
- Are you and your family going hiking today?

Affirmative

Yes, _____.

Yes, _____.

Yes, _____.

Yes, _____.

Negative

No, _____.

No, _____.

No, _____.

No, _____.