Focus on ... I'd like or I like

Look at what Calum is thinking as he is deciding what to do.

I like doing new things and I've never been skydiving before so I'd like to go skydiving.

- 1 Which expression in bold describes something Calum wants to do?

Which expression in bold describes something Calum enjoys?

- 2 Which is correct? Tick ✓ a or b.
- a I'd like going skydiving. ☐
 - b I'd like to go skydiving. ☐
- 3 Look at Calum's other ideas and choose the correct form.
- a I love horse riding so I like-doing / 'd like to do that tomorrow.
 - b I like going / 'd like to go shopping this afternoon because I want to buy presents for my friends.
 - c I'm interested in history so I like going / 'd like to go to museums when I visit a new place.
 - d I like seeing / 'd like to see the dolphins while I'm in Auckland, but it's quite expensive so I don't think I can.

Speak up!

- 2 Talk about the activities in Get ready. Which would / wouldn't you like to do? Give reasons for your answers.

I'd like to ... I wouldn't like to ...

Example:

You say: I'd like to go sailing because I love the sea but I wouldn't like to go bungy jumping because I don't like heights.

- 3  Choose one activity from Get ready. Read the questions below. Think about your answers but do not write them. Then listen and answer.

Example: a

You hear: What did you decide to do?

You say: I'd like to go horseriding.

- a What did you decide to do?
- b What day do you want to go?
- c For how many people?
- d Can you give me your full name?
- e How do you spell your surname?
- f And I just need a contact telephone number as well.
