

Look at some activities for community development and to match them with the reasons why they are important.

1. Building houses for low-income people
2. Building facilities like kindergartens, schools and parks
3. Widening roads, fixing running water, providing electricity in rural and remote areas
4. Training young people for jobs
5. Protecting the environment and ensuring healthy lifestyles

a. They are prepared for job market and find better employment.
b. This is important because we need the Earth for life.
c. When people have a place to live, they can develop other parts of their lives.
d. These are necessary facilities for daily living.
e. Without these basic things, there areas cannot develop.