The Hats of Presidents

by Tommy Capp

My second grade class is learning about Presidents of the United States. We are reading about George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Teddy Roosevelt. Today, our teacher showed us pictures of the kinds of hats these men wore. It was fun to learn about these hats.

George Washington wore a three-corner hat. This was a hat with three points. Abraham Lincoln wore a stovepipe hat. It was black and very tall. Sometimes Teddy Roosevelt wore a cowboy hat.
