Hi Anna,

You know, life at university in England isn't easy. I have to [1]do/make a lot of project work, and I have to [2]absent/attend a lot of classes and [3]do/make notes. Sometimes, I have to [4]give/get a presentation in class. However, I think I'm [5]doing/making progress. I hope so! As you know, I [6]did/got very badly in last year's exams. In fact, I [7]lost/failed two exams, and I had to [8]retake/remake them in the summer. So this time, I'm not going to [9]jump/skip any classes, and I'm going to [10]make/prepare for all my exams really carefully. I'm planning to sit in my room for hours, with all my books, [11]remaking/revising everything I've learned. Hopefully, one day, I'll [12]get/make my degree!

By the way, did I tell you? Two students have already [13]fallen/dropped out of my course this year. And one student has been asked to leave the university because he [14]cheated/attended in an exam. He wrote all the answers on his arm!

See you soon!

Jenny
