

MOVERS 9 – LISTENING – PART 3

Listen and fill in the blanks

1.

Woman: What did you do last weekend, Jack?

Boy: Oh...lots of things. On (1)_____, a man came to talk to my class.

Woman: Did he? What about?

Boy: About his work. He's a (2)_____. He's got lots of sheep.

Woman: Did he bring one with him?

Boy: No

2.

Boy: We had a good game of (3)_____ one afternoon.

Woman: At school?

Boy: Yes. There's a field behind the school. It's part of the farm, but we can play there.

Woman: That's good. Which afternoon was that?

Boy: It was on (4)_____, I think. Yes, that's right.

3.

Woman: And what about Friday?

Boy: Ermmm...We worked all day in the (5)_____, I think...No, that's wrong. After lunch, the teacher took us out.

Woman: Why?

Boy: We went to visit the farm. I rode on one of the farmer's trucks there!

4.

Boy: We're learning all about sheep and (6)_____ at school.

Woman: That's good. Do you like them?

Boy: They're OK. On Tuesday we did lots of (7)_____ of them.

Woman: On Tuesday?

Boy: Yes, that's right.

5.

Woman: And what did you do on (8)_____? You go to school that day too, I think.

Boy: Ermm...we played football again.

Woman: Did you?

Boy: Oh no. Sorry! We watched a film in the classroom that day.

Woman: And what was the film about?

Boy: A funny sheep that jumped on a truck and went to the city! It was OK – the farmer found it in the end.

6.

Boy: On Thursday, we had lots of (9)_____ to do.

Woman: Reading and writing?

Boy: Yes. I read about farms on the school computer on Thursday and then I wrote a long (10)_____.

Woman: Great!

Boy: Yes. I know a lot about farmers and their animals now.
