

Lesson 6:

Then There Was a Party

Let's start!

1. Remember?

2. Find and match

PAHILLGNFIDDLTUN
 R
 A
 W
 N
 S
 D
 A
 N
 P
 T
 U
 N
 E
 T
 U
 L
 O
 B
 S
 T
 E
 R
 O
 P
 A
 T
 H
 Y
 D
 O

Rainbow 3 3

My Adventure

Let's Find out!

3. Listen and read

So, at last the boats were coming back and everyone was excited by the news. Everyone in the village got ready now for a party down on the beach.

"Listen, you carry the firewood and I'll take the rice and water," Lee's mother said. "And be careful how you go." For the whole village was on the move. All the women and children and the old people walked down the path to the beach. Everyone of them.

Except one. "You stay here, Quan Yew," they all said. "You just stay here." And so Quan Yew stayed alone on the hill. And he felt sad as he watched all the people down on the beach get ready for the party.

1

First they made a big fire and then they cooked the food. And what food! There was delicious lobster and huge prawns and fresh tuna and rice. Then there were juicy mangoes and bunches of sweet bananas and everybody ate and ate until they all felt full.

Then there was singing. Yong-Lek sang some funny songs and everybody laughed. Mai-Wah sang a beautiful love song which everyone knew was for Sammy Tan. Then the fishermen sang a loud and happy song about their life at sea.

Next came the dancing. Old Foo-Yong hit a big drum, his brother picked up his fiddle and they started to play a dance tune. Everybody danced. Young with old and old with young.

Aunties and uncles and nephews and cousins and sisters and brothers. Everybody danced and they danced faster and faster as the music got quicker and quicker.

2

And then, somebody shouted. They shouted loud. "Look, up there, up there! Look, everybody! Quick, look up there!"

3

3

4

Rainbow 3

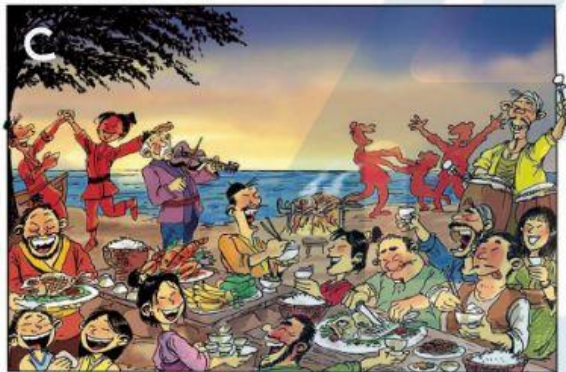

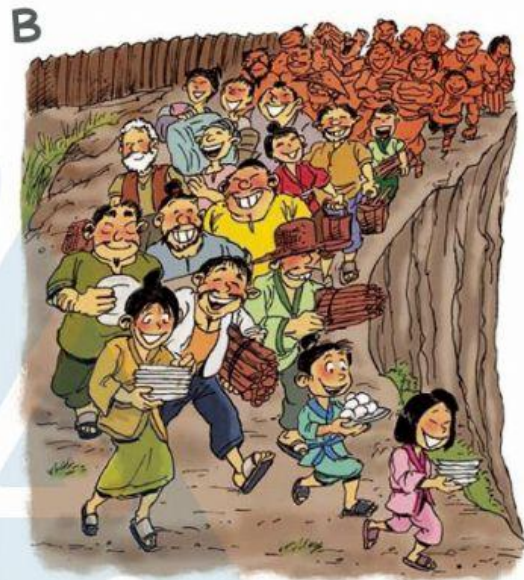

Lesson 6:

Let's Do It!

4. Look, match and number

5. Read and answer

6. Listen and choose

1. Why was everybody excited?
2. What did the people get ready for?
3. Who carried the firewood?
4. Who carried the rice and water?
5. Where did everybody go?
6. Who had to stay on the hill?
7. What food did they eat at the party?
8. What did they do next?
9. What did they do after that?
10. What did someone shout?

Then There Was a Party

7. Arrange and write

A. the path / except Quan Yew / to the beach. / went down / Everyone

B. Lee / to carry / Lee's mother / the firewood. / asked

C. a lot of / on the beach. / The people / cooked / food

D. songs. / sang / the people / Some of

E. the boats coming. / was very happy / they saw / everyone / when / in the village

F. and / huge prawns. / were / fresh tuna. / delicious lobster. / There

G. started / everyone / After that. / dancing.

H. herself / and / the rice / carried / water. / She

I. very sad / because / had to / was / he / on the hill. / He / stay

J. for a party / on the beach. / got ready / Everyone

K. sweet bananas. / also / juicy mangoes / and / There were

L. and / dancing. / there / Then / singing / was

M. shouted. / Then / "Look, up there, up there!" / somebody

N. a lot / They / felt full. / until / they / ate /

3

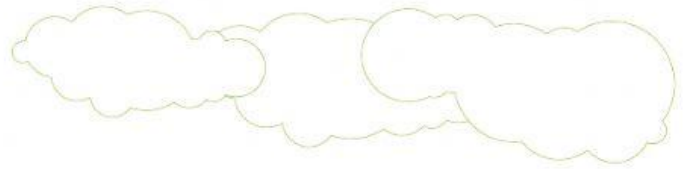

6

Rainbow 3

Lesson 6:

REMEMBER

- There was delicious lobster.
- There were bunches of sweet bananas.
- There were juicy mangoes.

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

8. Arrange and write

1

Everyone in the village was very happy when they saw the boats coming.

2

3

8

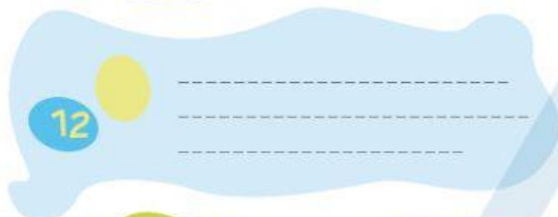

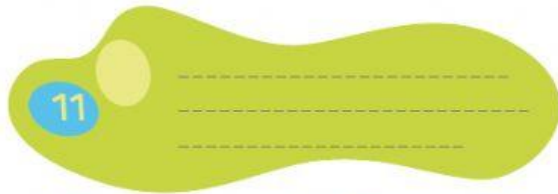

9

10

Then There Was a Party

Let's Try Again!

9. Read and retell

3

8

Rainbow 3

