

10 Circle the correct item.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 A: How did your class do in the exam?
B: Luckily, we passed.
A neither B both C all 2 A: Did you find someone to watch the boys?
B: No. I saw two babysitters yesterday but of them had much experience.
A both B all C neither 3 A: Are the girls going shopping with you?
B: No, of them are coming.
They've made other plans.
A none B all C both 4 A: How many sisters do you have?
B: Two and of them are younger than me.
A none B both C all 5 A: How will you get to the party?
B: I'll probably ask my dad to give me a lift.
..... of my friends have a car.
A None B All C Both | 6 A: Both of these dresses look lovely.
B: Yes, but I think of them fits me well.
A all B none C neither 7 A: Who do you like better, Christina Aguilera or Britney Spears?
B: I don't have a favourite. I think they are great singers.
A neither B both C all 8 A: There are some very nice clothes in that shop.
B: Yes, I know but of them are very expensive.
A both B all C none 9 A: Are you going to town today?
B: Yes, I want to return the two vases I bought yesterday because they are damaged.
A neither B both C all |
|--|---|

Another, Other, The other, The second

- We use another in front of singular countable nouns to mean 'one more' or 'a different one'.
I don't like this shirt. I'm going to buy another one.
- We use other in front of plural nouns when we refer to 'different ones'.
Jim likes travelling and learning about other cultures.
- We use the other in front of singular and plural countable nouns. It means 'not this one' or 'the remaining one(s)'.
The police arrested one man but the other one got away.
Where are the other books?
- We use the other when there are two and the second when we list things in order and there are more than two.
The first test was easy, the second was OK but the third was very difficult.