

THE JUNGLE PAINTING

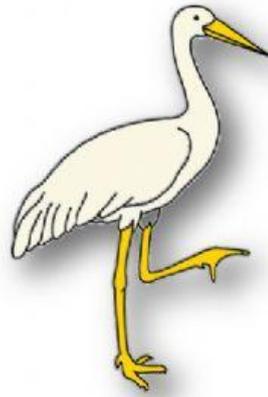

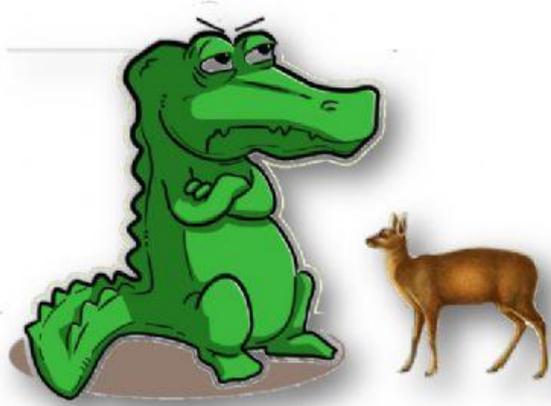

Once there was a beautiful white Egret. He liked to boast. "I am more beautiful than the Kingfisher. Look at my white feathers," he said.

The kingfisher laughed "Look at my blue feathers. Blue are better than white."
An old orang-utan said "You are silly. You are both beautiful."

One day Mouse Deer was bored.
Proboscis monkey was eating. Crocodile was sleeping. Mouse Deer said
"Monkey, look at your big stomach."

I asked the animals to a party.
Mouse Deer and Crocodile argued.
Egret and kingfisher argued.
I was tired of all the arguing.

"Stop! You are all my friends and I don't care who is bigger, stronger, hungrier or more colourful. Let's just have fun together."

CLICK THE CORRECT ANSWER.

1. Who like to boast about himself?
 - a. Proboscis Monkey likes to boast about himself.
 - b. Egret likes to boast about himself.
 - c. Crocodile likes to boast about himself.

2. To whom did Egret compare himself?
 - a. Egret compared himself with Crocodile.
 - b. Egret compared himself with Proboscis Monkey
 - c. Egret compared himself with Kingfisher.

3. What did the Kingfisher said after Egret compared with himself?

- a. Kingfisher said that white were better than blue.
- b. Kingfisher said that blue were better than white.
- c. Kingfisher said that white were better than nothing.

4. What did Mouse Deer felt one day?

- a. One day, Mouse Deer was happy.
- b. One day, Mouse Deer was angry.
- c. One day, Mouse Deer was bored.

5. What did the Mouse Deer said to the Proboscis Monkey who was eating?

- a. Mouse Deer said, "Monkey, look at your big stomach."
- b. Mouse Deer said, "Monkey, look at your big head."
- c. Mouse Deer said, "Monkey, look at your big shoulder."

6. Who asked the animals to the party?

- a. The Proboscis Monkey.
- b. The Crocodile.
- c. The Kingfisher.

7. Who was tired of all the arguments?
- a. The Mouse Deer tired of all the arguments.
 - b. The Proboscis Monkey tired of all the arguments.
 - c. The Egret tired of all the arguments.

8. Who asked the entire animals to stop arguing?
- a. The Proboscis Monkey asked the entire animals to stop arguing.
 - b. The Crocodile asked the entire animals to stop arguing.
 - c. The Kingfisher asked the entire animals to stop arguing.