

Study Skills

THE GOOD LANGUAGE LEARNER

- 1 Do you think you are a good language learner? Write down the things you do well as a language learner.
- 2 Look at the list below. Tick (✓) the sentences that are true for you. Put a cross (X) next to the sentences that are not true for you.
 - 1 I look at my work after class and study any new materials again.
 - 2 I have a vocabulary book to write new words in.
 - 3 I practise using the new vocabulary and don't just remember the meaning.
 - 4 I don't translate every word. I try to use a monolingual dictionary.
 - 5 I read English outside the classroom.
 - 6 I listen to English outside the classroom.
 - 7 I use English (not my own language) in class.
 - 8 I check my work for mistakes.
 - 9 I practise new grammar with a self-study book or online.

3 Complete the table with four examples of your good language learner skills.

Things I do now	How I do them
I chat online in English.	I write messages on Facebook in English.

My goals

THE GOOD LANGUAGE LEARNER

1 Complete the table below with four goals for your future.

Things I do now	How I am going to do them
I don't practise new grammar	Buy a grammar book and practise any new grammar points.

2 Look at your goals again in two weeks and see what progress you make.
