Form 6. Unit VIII. Reading is great!

I. Match types of books and their definitions. Use arrows ↘:

A traditional historical story	friendship story
A book giving information on different subjects, usually in the alphabetical order	legend
A book describing somebody's life	biography
A story full of humour and laughter	encyclopaedia
A story telling about friends and their relationships	humorous story

II. Match the opposites. Use arrows ↘:

dishonest	wise
funny	honest
mean	generous
cowardly	serious
silly	brave

III. Put the words from the box in the sentences:

of	over	of	on	of

1. Magazines are usually full _____ colourful photos.
2. My dad is keen _____ reading fiction.
3. Little kids are fond _____ fairy tales.
4. Funny people have a great sense _____ humour.
5. In fairy tales good always wins _____ evil.

IV. Choose the correct word:

1. Horror stories are _____ because they give me goosebumps.
a) scary b) amusing c) relaxing

2. In fairy tales good always wins over _____.
a) problems b) evil c) magic

3. Romantic books are full of _____ moments.
a) educational b) touching c) funny

4. _____ books give facts about real events.
a) Non-fiction b) Fiction c) Fantasy

5. Joanne Rowling was _____ in England in 1965.
a) died b) published c) born

LIVEWORKSHEETS

V. Fill in the gaps:

1.	_____ wrote "The Chronicles of Narnia"?
2.	_____ Joanne Rowling got a daughter or two sons?
3.	_____ Harry Potter a wizard?
4.	_____ book did Kipling publish in 1894?
5.	"The Hobbit" is written by R.R. Tolkien, _____?

VI. Match the questions with their types. Use arrows ↘ :

What book did Maxim Bogdanovich publish in 1914?	Yes/No question
The book "Tom Sawyer" is written by Mark Twain, _____?	Wh-question
Who wrote "Little Prince"?	Or-question
Was Joanne Rowling born in the USA?	Who-question
Has Stephanie Meyers got daughters or sons?	Tag question

LIVEWORKSHEETS