Sports Day

I jumped out of bed early and rushed to get ready for school. I hastily dressed. I put on my red tee-shirt that my mum got decorated with my name at the back with red glitter and my new red Nike running sneakers. It was one of the few days I couldn't help grinning from ear to ear, it was finally Sports Day. I am the defending champion of the under-11 title and now I have moved into an older division. I am worried a bit about the tough competition from the other houses yet I am excited to see my friends.

I got the bus, and I was on my way
