

c Match the sentences.

D He might be American.	A He's carrying a sports bag.
<input type="checkbox"/> 1 He can't be a university student.	B He's carrying a camera and a guide book.
<input type="checkbox"/> 2 He must be cold.	C He's looking at a map.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3 He might be going to the gym.	D He's wearing a baseball cap.
<input type="checkbox"/> 4 He could be lost.	E He's looking at job adverts in the newspaper.
<input type="checkbox"/> 5 He must be married.	F He isn't talking to anybody.
<input type="checkbox"/> 6 He must be a tourist.	G He isn't wearing a suit.
<input type="checkbox"/> 7 He can't be enjoying the party.	H He's wearing a wedding ring.
<input type="checkbox"/> 8 He may not have a job.	I He's not old enough.
<input type="checkbox"/> 9 He can't be a businessman.	J He isn't wearing a jumper.

d Complete with must, might (not), or can't.

A What does Pete's new girlfriend do?

B I'm not sure, but she might be a model. She's very pretty.

A Do you know anyone who drives a Ferrari?

B Yes, my nephew. I don't know his salary, but he earn a fortune!

A Why don't you buy this dress for your mum?

B I'm not sure. She like it. It's a bit short for her.

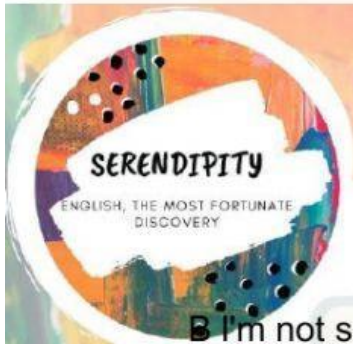

A My sister works as an interpreter for the EU.

B She speak a lot of languages to work there.

A Did you know that Andy's parents have split up?

B Poor Andy. He feel very happy about that.

A Are your neighbours away? All the windows are closed.

B I'm not sure. I suppose they be on holiday.

A Where's your colleague today?

B She be ill. She called to say that she's going to the doctor's.

A Jane is looking at you in a very strange way.

B Yes. I've grown a beard since I saw her last, so she recognize me.

A My daughter has failed all her exams again.

B She be working very hard if she gets such bad grades.

A Why is Tina so happy?

B I'm not sure, but she have a new partner.

A Where's the manager's house?

B I don't know, but he live near the office because he commutes every day by train.

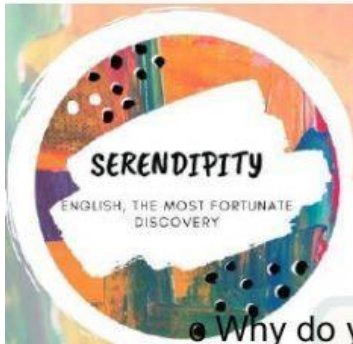

5 Listening & Reading

a Look at the man in the photo. Make sentences about him using might / may / could (not) be, must be, or can't be and words from the list; Italian, English, very rich, homeless, intellectual, hungry.

b Listen to a woman talking about the man in a and answer the questions. 3.47

- 1 Where were the speaker and her friend Adriana?
- 2 What were they doing when they saw the man?
- 3 What did he look like?
- 4 What did Adriana want to do?
- 5 What did the speaker do?

c Why do you think the speaker stopped Adriana? Listen and find out.
Who was the man? 3.48

d What the following video about Susan Boyle.

e Read the article Yes, appearance matters once and choose the best summary.

- ☐ We now realize that it is wrong to judge people by their appearance.
- ☐ Judging people by appearance can be useful, and is often right.
- ☐ If you try to judge people by their appearance, you will usually be wrong about them.

f Read the article again and tick the true sentences

- ☐ 1 Most people predicted that Susan Boyle would be successful as a singer.
- ☐ 2 After her appearance on TV, people started saying that we shouldn't judge people by their appearance.
- ☐ 3 Scientists think that judging by appearance is an important skill.
- ☐ 4 It is more important to be able to make quick judgments about people than it used to be.
- ☐ 5 When we judge people by their appearance, we are usually wrong.

- ☐ 6 Susan Boyle has probably realized that people will never stop judging her by her appearance.

g Find a word or phrase in the article for the definitions.

Paragraph 1

- 1 was sent all over the internet
2 a by.....
..... judge a person by his / her appearance

Paragraph 2

- 3 absolutely essential

Paragraph 3

- 4-..... what social class she is and how much money she has

Paragraph 4

- 5 people who are not expected to succeed

h Speaking

1 Do you think people in your country tend to judge other people by their appearance? In what way?

2 How important do you think appearance is for the following people?

- politicians
- TV presenters
- business people
- singers
- doctors

Do you think it is right that their appearance matters?

3 On what occasions might you judge someone by their appearance?