The infographic is a vertical pink rectangle with a white border. At the top left is a large orange heart. To its right is the title 'Protect your health' in a bold, dark brown font. Above the title is a small orange circle with a white hash symbol. Below the title is an orange rounded rectangle containing the text 'Let's do sports and exercise to protect our health.' To the right of this rectangle is a yellow lightning bolt icon. Below the text box is a large white square with a blue scalloped border on its left side, labeled '[4]' in a blue starburst. To the right of this square is a white oval containing various sports balls (basketball, soccer ball, football, tennis ball) and a baseball bat, with a yellow scalloped border above it. Below the sports balls is a green starburst labeled '[8]'. To the left of the starburst is a white square with a yellow border, containing an icon of a person coughing into their elbow and a red circle with a hand and a slash. Below this square is a white square with a yellow border, containing an icon of a person wearing a face mask and a red circle with two people and a slash. To the right of the mask icon is a yellow diamond labeled '[9]'. Below the mask icon is a white square with a green starburst labeled '[6]'. To the right of the starburst is a white square with a blue border, containing an icon of a hand being washed under a faucet. Below the handwashing icon is a white square with a yellow starburst labeled '[7]'. At the bottom of the infographic is a row of illustrations: a person wearing a face mask, a person wearing a face mask and a red '1m' distance sign, a bottle of hand sanitizer, a box of face masks, and three people wearing face masks. Below these illustrations is the text 'APRENDO EN CASA' and 'Do it yourself - Learning Experience 8'.
