

Vocabulary 2

Phrasal verbs

A phrasal verb is a combination of a verb and one or two particles.

Look!

- 1 Find these verbs in a dictionary and translate them into your language.

Напиши перевод в окошке, с маленькой буквы

turn

turn on

turn off

- 2 Соедини слово и предложение с картинкой

sit down

turn on

get into

take off

pick up

look for

run after

run away

'Sit down', said the inspector.

The robber got into the police car.

She turned on the tape recorder and began to question the suspect.

'Take off your hat!', said the policeman.

The detective was looking for fingerprints.

The detective picked up a bag of money.

The policeman was running after him.

The robber was running away.

- 4 16 Listen and repeat.

- 5 Complete the opposites with phrasal verbs from exercise 2.

1 stand up ≠ sit down

4 turn off

2 put down

5 get out of

3 put on

Listening

A radio phone-in programme

- 6 17 Listen to the radio phone-in programme. Which crimes do the people talk about?

armed robbery theft hacking vandalism

Radio London Wednesday 19.30

Talk About it!

Tonight's programme looks at experiences of crime. Have you been a victim of crime? Or a witness? Call us on 0800 234567 and tell us about it!

- 7 17 Listen again and choose the correct answers.

1 Vicky was celebrating her birthday ...

a) at a disco.

c) at a restaurant.

b) at a friend's house.

2 When she picked up her bag, her ... was missing.

a) mobile phone

c) MP3 player

b) money

3 When she got home, she phoned ...

a) the restaurants.

c) the police.

b) her friend.

4 The vandals got into Richard's school ...

a) last weekend.

c) at night.

b) early in the morning.

5 They destroyed ...

a) the school computers.

b) books in the library.

c) tables and chairs.

6 The police caught the vandals because they found ...

a) fingerprints.

c) clothes.

b) books.