

Name: _____

Date: _____

Division: _____

Moon Phases
Video Questions

1. The phases of the Moon are caused by _____.
2. The side of a spherical object facing the Sun is called the _____ or _____ side. The side facing away is called the _____ or _____ side.
3. The line between the lit and unlit side of the Moon is called the _____.
4. The _____ of the Moon depends on what direction the _____ is coming from and the _____ we see it from Earth.
5. The New Moon phase happens when the Moon is _____ the Earth and the Sun.
6. At New Moon, the Moon _____ at sunrise, and _____ at sunset.
7. When visible part of the Moon is getting bigger, we say it is _____.
8. When the Moon is 90° from the Sun, though it appears half full, we call that phase First _____.
9. When the Moon is slightly more than half-full, we say it is _____.
10. When the _____ is between the _____ and _____, the phase of the Moon is called the _____.
11. When lit part of the Moon is shrinking, we say it is _____.
12. A week after Full Moon, the half-full Moon is called _____.
13. The Moon finally returns to _____ one month after it was in that phase previously. It has travelled _____ degrees through the sky.
14. If you were on the Moon during New Moon, looking at the Earth, the phase of the Earth would be _____.
15. The light from the Earth on the unlit side of the Moon is called _____.