

HELLO & GOODBYE!

1. Match the greetings/farewells with its correct definition

- | | |
|------------------|--|
| • Good night | A greeting said when meeting someone in the afternoon |
| • Good evening | A farewell said when you or the other person are leaving |
| • Good morning | A greeting said when meeting someone in the evening |
| • Hi _____ | A short informal greeting you say when meeting someone |
| • Hello | A greeting said when meeting someone in the morning |
| • Good afternoon | A farewell said in the evening or before going to sleep |
| • Goodbye | A formal greeting said when meeting someone |

2. Listen to the conversation and drag the phrases to their correct place.

Thanks for coming. Goodbye!

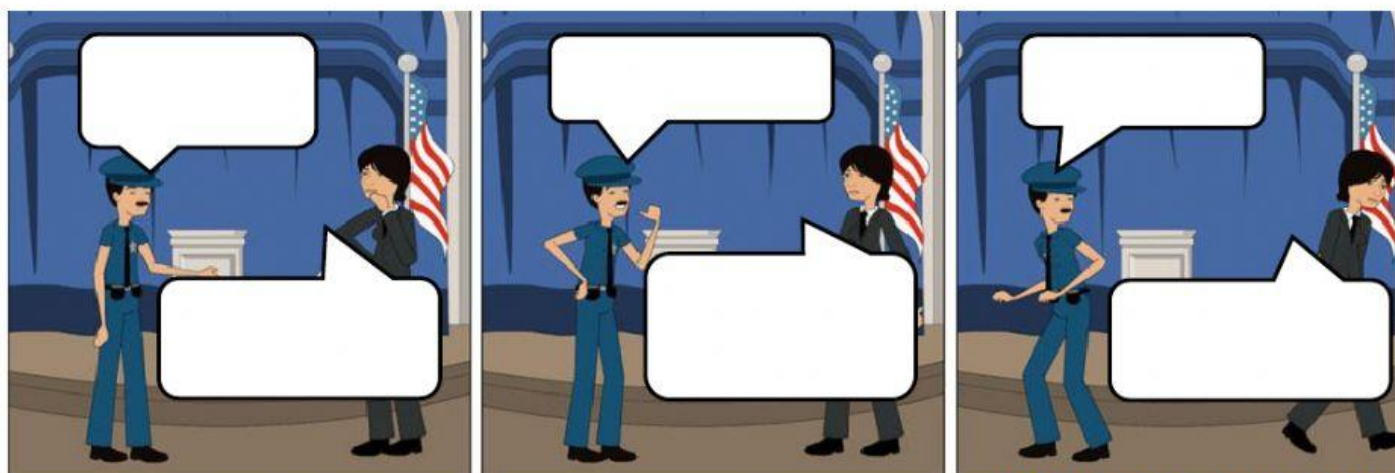

Eh, I have to go, Sir.

Well, goodbye!

Good morning Mr. Bush

Good evening officer

Sure, no problem. Have a nice day!

3. Read the following conversations. Drag the phrases to complete them

Have a good day

how are you doing?

Good night

Bye

Goodbye

See ya

Morning!

Later

• Conversation 1

A: _____ dude

B: See ya! Take care!

A: You too man, bye!

B: bye- bye

• Conversation 2

A: Good bye, Mr Lopez!

B: _____ Ms. García. It was a pleasure seeing you.

A: Me too, Mr Lopez. Have a good night.

• Conversation 3

A: _____!

B: Hi there, _____?

A: I'm great, and you?

B: I'm doing fine! Nice to see you

A: Nice to see you too.

• Conversation 4

A: _____, Madam

B: Goodbye Mr. Perez. _____

B: Thank you, Madam. You too!

• Conversation 5

A: _____ later, dude!

B: _____, see you next week!

A: Sure, take care

B: You too! Bye