

GRAMMAR

Question tags

1 Give the correct form of question tag for each item.

1. Jamyjame wasn't exhausted yesterday, was he?
2. I don't think you always look at commercial breaks on TV, _____?
3. Pass me that colourful picture, _____?
4. Staying up every day made you feel sick, _____?
5. They have to repair this car before going to work, _____?
6. It's a pity you can't come to the party tonight, _____?
7. Don't forget to give Mr. Max my message, _____?
8. Let's have some more rest, _____?
9. Nothing went wrong at the concert yesterday, _____?
10. None of us know his real age, _____?
11. I know you won't mind sitting by Tor, _____?
12. The boys used to go swimming once a week, _____?
13. He'd rather come today than tomorrow, _____?
14. You need a little help for your English project, _____?
15. Everyone knows how to control the situation, _____?
16. You'd better stay at home if you still have a fever, _____?
17. Everything at school is all right now, _____?
18. I bet you've never heard of that before, _____?

2 What might you say to somebody in these situations? Use appropriate question tags.

1. You read an exciting novel.

That novel was exciting, wasn't it?

2. You think Justin has never been to the Loikrathong Festival.

Justin

3. You think your new teacher treats people well.

Our new

4. You invite your friends to the cinema.

Let's

5. Ask your dad to answer the phone.

Dad, answer

6. You are not sure, but you think your favourite football team won.
