A special day

By Tomas Tompson

Diane is a Peruvian high school student. She is a famous roller-skater. She works hard every day, but today is a special day because she is the new Latin American roller-skater champion. She gets up at 5:00 AM every day, but today she is getting up at 7:00. She always takes a shower at 5:10 AM and goes roller-skating for an hour, but today she is sleeping until seven. She usually has breakfast at 6:20, but today she is having breakfast at 7:30. She leaves home and takes the bus at 6:45, but today she is staying at home. She always attends classes from 7:00 AM to 1:30 PM, but today she is watching TV. She often has lunch at 1:45 PM and today she is having lunch at 1:45, too. She generally does her homework from 2:30 to 5:30 and practice roller-skating until seven, but today she is going out with her friends to celebrate and have dinner with them. Congratulations Diane! A special day for a special girl!
