

Listen to Marci, Shiela, and Dale talk about Alzheimer's disease and choose the correct answers.

- 1 The group's main purpose is _____.
 - A to learn about how to keep Alzheimer's patients safe.
 - B to share a current problem a person with Alzheimer's disease has.
 - C to give and receive support in caretaking for people with Alzheimer's disease.
- 2 What is Sheila's concern?
 - A that her father will fall
 - B that she has to help her father sit down each time
 - C that her father will do something he never used to do
- 3 What advice does Marci give for speaking to a person with Alzheimer's disease?
 - A to reason with them
 - B to use safe language
 - C to use simple instructions
- 4 What does Dale's mother do?
 - A forgets if it is AM or PM
 - B repeatedly asks for the time
 - C cannot read the small numbers on the clock
- 5 What does Marci say can help give a person with Alzheimer's independence?
 - A a large digital clock
 - B a chair with large arms
 - C attending a support group

Listen to a conversation between Huong, Trang, Van, and Duong, and their parents. Write short answers to the questions.

1. What is the family celebrating today?

2. How are they celebrating?

3. What did the mom bring Huong at night?

4. What didn't Trang appreciate as a child?

5. What passion does Van have that started as a child every Saturday?

