

Life Skills: Weekly Chores - Dusting

Draw a line to the picture of the lady mopping the floors.

Draw a line to the picture of the man vacuuming the carpet.

Draw a line to the picture of the man dusting.

Dust floats in the air in our homes and then lands on furniture like coffee tables, shelves and dressers.

Draw a line to the picture of the coffee table.

Draw a line to the picture of the bookshelf.

Draw a line to the picture of the dresser.

To dust your coffee table, shelves and dresser you need to use a duster or a cloth and sometimes a little water.

Draw a line to the picture of the duster.

Draw a line to the picture of the cloth.

Draw a line to the picture of the glass with a little water.

A duster is needed to dust tables and shelves.

Click the matching picture of the duster.

Click the word that matches the picture.

mop

duster

A cloth is needed to dust tables and shelves.

Click the matching picture of the cloth.

Click the word that matches the picture.

bucket

cloth

A little water may be needed to dust tables and shelves

Click the matching picture of the glass with a little water in it.

Click the word that matches the picture.

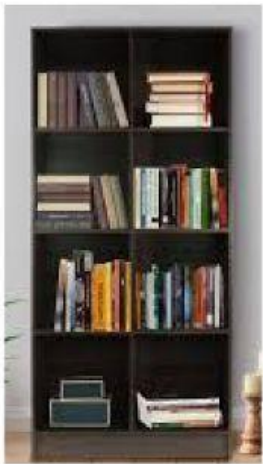

cloth

water

The best way to keep your home clean is to dust it every week. Click the picture of the person dusting their home.

Click the pictures of things that need to be dusted.

Dusting furniture is an example of a weekly chore.

Click the matching picture of the man dusting.

Click the word that describes the picture.

Dusting

Mopping floors