

Complete the dialogues using Degree of Comparison / too / enough / not enough / too much / too many!

Seller: Here's your Cabbage.

Joe: Could I have another one, please?
This one's _____ dirty.

The first train is _____ (crowded) the second train.

Mother asked me to buy some carrots again. But I've eaten _____ carrots for the past few days.

Vano: How about a toy for your sister?

Darren: Sounds good. But she's got _____ toys. The shelf is full already.

This sofa is _____ (soft) for sleeping. I'll take it.

My parent's cooking is _____ (delicious) restaurant's foods.

The products in this market is (not, expensive)

_____ the market near my house.

