Schooldays – the happiest days of your life?

Send us your thoughts and win a new laptop!

When I was at primary school I really didn't enjoy school. Everyone said 'come on Jenny. These are the best days of your life!' I didn't believe them. I always left my homework until the last minute and I remember Mum. She got so angry with me. 'Sit down and do your homework NOW!' But I wanted to talk on the phone or play computer games with my friends. 'I said SIT DOWN!' It was the same thing every Sunday evening. I feel sorry for her now of course.

Then when I was eleven and went to secondary school, everything changed. And that was because of one teacher: Mrs Mann. She was our maths teacher. I didn't think I was good at maths but she showed me that I was. She was so interesting and funny and she was very young and attractive too I remember. She had long fair hair and wore really nice clothes. She was probably in her mid-twenties. We all enjoyed her lessons. She always had time for us. She was always in a good mood and she never shouted at us. Mum never had to tell me to do my homework after I met Mrs Mann! When I got home after school, I did my homework immediately because I wanted to do well.

In fact I enjoyed Mrs Mann's lessons so much that I decided to study maths at university. I know she was pleased. When I was a student I wrote to her every term and sometimes we met during the holidays. That was twenty years ago. And now I'm a maths lecturer at the university where I studied. I hope that my students enjoy studying with me as much as I enjoyed learning with Mrs Mann.
