

Some Great Victorians

	Alexander Graham Bell • (1847 – 1922) a scientist and an engineer	• created •	• Oliver Twist from 1837 and 1839.
	Charles Darwin • (1809 – 1882) a scientist	• discovered •	• over the United Kingdom from 1837 to 1901.
	Charles Dickens • (1812 – 1870) a journalist and a writer	• formulated •	• "Rain, Steam and Speed" in 1844.
	Arthur Conan Doyle • (1859 – 1930) a doctor and a writer	• invented •	• Victoria Falls in Africa in 1855.
	David Livingstone • (1813 – 1873) an explorer	• opened •	• his scientific theory of evolution in 1859.
	Florence Nightingale • (1820 – 1910) a nurse	• Painted •	• the first training school for nurses in 1860.
	William Turner • (1776 – 1851) an artist	• reigned •	• the telephone in 1876.
	Victoria • (1819 – 1901) a queen	• wrote •	• Sherlock Holmes in 1887.