Describing people with who

Describing people with who

I have a friend.	She collects coins.
I have a friend who collects coins.
Nico has two sisters.	They play soccer.
Nico has two sisters who play soccer.
The boy is friendly.	He sits next to me.
The boy who sits next to me is friendly.
The people are French.	They live next door.
The people who live next door are French.

You can use who to combine two sentences and describe or define the person you're talking about.

A. Read and choose the correct option.

B. I have a cousin who likes / like playing soccer.

C. There are boys in my class who collect / collects comic books.

D. My mother is a creative person who makes / make beautiful paintings.

E. She has and uncle who works / work at the airport.

F. Samantha knows two girls who plays / play the violin.

G. John has a friend who is / are a famous rock star.

B. Check the correct option for each sentence(There are more than one)

I have a friend who _____

*Lives at the beach.	* play video games
*competes.	*competes.
*has a big house	*are creative.
*is cool.	*collects video games.
*doesn't live here.	*take good photos.

I have parents who _____

*Lives at the beach.	* play video games
*competes.	*competes.
*has a big house	*are creative.
*is cool.	*collects video games.
*doesn't live here.	*take good photos.