

Complete the gap with a word from the list:

eyesight, boost, carbohydrates, fibre, additive, spice, handful, tummy, artificial, fizzy, still, delicious, bitter

1. I love different types of chocolate. But my favourite one is _____.
2. Fruit and vegetables are high in _____ content.
3. Exercise can sometimes provide a _____ of energy.
4. Mr Woods opened the most beautiful _____ store in New York.
5. Could I have a glass of mineral water? – Sparkling or _____?
6. Autumn is the season when food is especially _____.
7. Some fizzy drinks contain _____ food colouring.
8. She's got nothing in her _____. It's rumbling.
9. He wears glasses because his _____ is not good.
10. In our products, you will not find any artificial _____.
11. Mike took a _____ of sunflower seeds and ate them on his way home.
12. Pepsi and Coca-Cola are the most popular _____ drinks in the USA.
13. Tea without sugar contains no calories, proteins, fat or _____.

Complete the gap with a word from the list:

raw, boiled, toasted, roasted, fried, scrambled, steamed, baked, grilled, complain, rumble, soothe, starve, treat.

1. Her stomach started to _____. She hadn't eaten any breakfast.
2. Oven _____ turkey is a tender and juicy main dish that you can serve for Thanksgiving Day.
3. _____ bread is sliced bread browned on both sides by heat.
4. Potato chips are thin slices of potato, _____ quickly in oil and then salted.
5. Why do you always _____ about everything? Don't you like the food?
6. Some vegetarians don't cook vegetables. They say _____ vegetables are much more useful for our health.
7. What is the difference between omelette and _____ eggs? The difference is in preparation.
8. Manti in Central Asian cuisines are made of meat and dough like Russian pelmeni. They are _____ in mantovarkas.
9. Shashlyk is a dish of _____ cubes of marinated meat.
10. When we receive guests, we usually _____ them to Mum's famous apple pie.
11. Let's have a snack. There's no need for us to _____.
12. Take a saucepan and pour some water. Let's cook hard _____ eggs for breakfast.
13. The waiter tried to _____ the angry customer.
14. My bread is _____ in my own oven.