1910020025 Emihan Zevdzhetova

TENSES

1. Fill in the gaps by choosing the right answer

a) I right now.

b) I yesterday.

c) I tomorrow

2. Join the sentences to the corresponding tenses

I worked yesterday	Past tense
I am working now	Present simple tense
I often work	Future simple tense
I will work the next weekend	Present continuous tense

3. Choose the right answer

a) We use Present simple to:

Indicate what we are doing right now

Indicate what we are going to do in the future

Indicate what we usually do, for habitual actions and timetables

b) We use Future simple to:

Indicate what we are going to do in the future

Indicate what we usually do, for habitual actions and timetables

Indicate what we are doing right now

c) We use Present continuous tense to:

Indicate what we usually do, for habitual actions and timetables

Indicate what we are going to do in the future

Indicate what we are doing right now

4. Select the verb forms, which are appropriate for the sentences:

I am doing/was doing/do/will do my Homework right now.

I do/will do/ am doing/ do my Homework regularly.

I am doing/will do/ do/ was doing my Homework the following Monday.

5. Drag the right tenses, which correspond to the following sentences:

Present simple tense

Present continuous tense

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Future simple tense

Past tense

I did my Homework yesterday, I am doing my Homework right now, I always do my Homework,

I will do my Homework tomorrow,

LIVEWORKSHEETS