

Re write your test

1. The towns _____ (not/be destroy) if the volcano hadn't been so destructive. ✓
2. If the inhabitants evacuated _____ (evacuate) early enough, the terrible disaster would have been averted.
3. If the weather is gloomy, we _____ (stay) in the hotel and read. wouldn't have to stay
4. If I heard a loud, shrill, frightening noise while at the beach, I _____ (return) to the hotel immediately. ✓
5. A tsunami would be set off, if a nearby volcano _____ (erupt). ✓
6. If the curious children and adults hadn't gone on the beach to investigate the strange sound, they _____ (lose) their lives. ✓
7. The disaster wouldn't have been so terrible, if all the hotels _____ (prepare) for the possibility of a tsunami. wouldn't have prepare
8. If you want to be safe during a tsunami, you _____ (move) miles inland. wouldn't had moved
9. When the sea draws back it means that a tsunami would come _____ (come) soon.
10. Many lives would have been saved, if the guest at the hotel had took _____ (take) precautions.
11. If there is a serious tsunami, the coastline would have been _____ (be) damaged.
12. If the scientists who had observed the ash from volcano had alerted the nearby countries, the extent of the disaster _____ (be) much less. ✓
13. If there were strong winds along with a tsunami, there would have been _____ (be) tremendous damage to the coastline.
14. If scientists predict tsunamis, they would have moved _____ (save) many lives.