Name: ..... Class: ..... Number: .....

Read the definitions and write the correct vocabulary words.

1. Quickly and unexpected _____
2. Not hard to understand or do _____
3. Likely to break or stop working properly _____
4. The act of helping someone or something _____
5. To get something by paying money for it _____
6. A place that sells tools and things for your home _____
7. To build something again after it has been damaged or destroyed _____
8. Pieces of equipment that are designed to do a particular type of work _____

Listen and complete the missing words.

M1: Lisa? What's wrong?

W1: Hi, Rich. Um… I'm just a little tired.

M1: Why?

W1: I didn't get much sleep last night.

M1: Because of the storm?

W1: Yeah. I was lying in bed when I _____ heard a loud smashing sound. The storm was so strong it broke a bunch of windows in the house.

M1: What? That sounds scary.

W1: It was. We had to leave and stay in a hotel.

M1: Well, it's just a few broken windows. It should be a _____ fix, right?

W1: No, I don't think so. My dad went to the _____ to get _____ this morning. He said they don't have the stuff he needs. It might be a while before he can fix the house.

M1: I'm sorry to hear that. Is there any way I can help?

W1: Thanks for the _____, Rich. I'll be fine. I just need some rest for now.

LIVEWORKSHEETS