III. Read and choose.

Tet or Lunar New Year holiday is the most important celebration for Vietnamese people. Tet is a festival which happens in late January or early February. Before Tet, people usually clean and decorate their homes. They go to the market to buy candy, fruit candy or dried watermelon seeds. They also wear new beautiful clothes at Tet.

People often buy peach blossoms and marigolds which are traditional flowers on Tet holiday. Tet is a time for family members to gather and have some special meals with special food such as sticky rice, Chung cakes, boiled chicken. Children will get lucky money in small red envelopes. People often visit relatives and close friends on the second day of the holiday.
