

Vocabulary

Phrasal verbs

A Rewrite the sentences below in your notebook replacing the words in bold with these phrasal verbs.

turn away   turn down   turn off   turn on turn out   turn up

- The documentary didn't end in a particular way to be very good.
- The organising committee members might refuse me admission if I don't have a ticket for the concert.
- Can you switch on the radio as my favourite programme is on in a minute?
- Bob, decrease the volume of the music. It's too loud!
- Could you increase the volume of the television, Mum? I can't hear a thing.
- Make sure you switch off the electric guitar when you have finished using it.

B Match the phrasal verbs in bold 1–6 to their meanings a–f.

- I'm not sure that type of music will catch on. It's too weird. ☐
- I need you to give out these flyers about the rap competition. ☐
- I must buy a ticket for the Siti Nurhaliza concert before they sell out. ☐
- The drama group are going to act out the scene before they film it. ☐
- I used to like magic shows but I've grown out of them now. ☐
- I need to get these lyrics down on paper before I forget them. ☐

- run out of tickets for an event
- become too old for
- distribute
- become popular
- write down
- perform

C Complete the second sentence with the phrasal verbs from A and B so it means the same as the first. Use no more than three words.

- 'The play was very good in the end.'
She said that the play had _____ to be good.
- He said that he didn't think hip-hop would ever become popular with older people.
'I don't think hip-hop will ever _____ with older people.'
- 'I think you should perform the scene a few more times before opening night,' the director said.
The director said they should _____ the scene a few more times before opening night.
- The interviewer said that it was very interesting and she wanted to write it down.
'That's very interesting. Let me _____ that _____,' the interviewer said.
- 'We have to get the tickets now before they run out of them,' she said to me.
She said we had to get the tickets before they _____.
- My dad told us that he had loved reggae when he was younger, but that he's become too old for it now.
'I loved reggae when I was younger but I've _____ it now.'
- 'The live comedy show was full and they refused us admission at the door,' she said.
She said that the live comedy show had been full and that they _____ them _____ at the door.
- They said they were distributing free concert tickets for that weekend.
'We're _____ free concert tickets for this weekend!'

Ideas Focus

- Have you ever been turned away from an event? What happened?
- Have you grown out of anything that you liked? Why do you think this is?