Paragraph 5	Thank the audience.	Thank you for listening.

Thank you for listening.

Always tell your parents where and whom you are going out with. This is important because they can help you during an emergency.

I am here to present a speech on the topic "Stay safe from strangers".

Good morning to the headmaster, teachers, and fellow friends.

Do not go with strangers. They may try to abduct you by saying they are lost or pretending they need your help.

After school, do wait for your parents inside of the school compound. Do not stand along the roadside.

I hope you will all be aware and stay safe from strangers.

My name is Najmee from 6 Sapphire.
