SMART ANIMALS

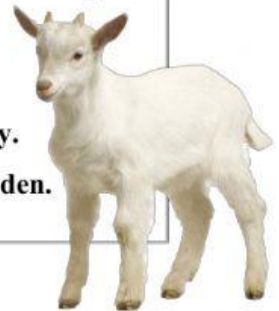

How intelligent are animals? People say horses, dogs, and dolphins are very clever, and donkeys are stupid. But donkeys are actually very intelligent. They are good pets. A friend of mine has a donkey in his backyard. The donkey's name is Jack. Jack opens the door to the house. Then he opens the door of the refrigerator and gets food.

Goats are smart too, and they are good pets. I have a pet goat.

Her name is Sabrina, and she's still a baby. Sabrina is intelligent and friendly.

The only problem is that Sabrina eats everything: even the flowers in my garden.
