PERMISSION WITH "ALLOW" OR TO BE ALLOWED TO

Permission can be expressed as someone giving permission to another. (ALLOW TO)

It can also be expressed as someone receiving permission. (TO BE ALLOWED TO)

A	ALLOWS	B	TO DO SOMETHING
B	IS ALLOWED	TO DO SOMETHING	(BY A)

Rewrite these sentences without changing the original meaning:

1. Susan's parents don't allow her to travel abroad.

2. The boss didn't allow anyone to eat lunch at the office.

3. Tim doesn't allow me to ride his motorbike.

4. The suspects weren't allowed to talk to each other by the police officer.

5. Dogs aren't allowed to enter the shop.

6. Our teacher allows us to use our phones during her lessons.

7. My friends and I are allowed to go to a concert (by our parents).

8. My mother doesn't allow my father to step on the recent washed floor.

9. Nobody is allowed to copy in the exams.

10. Gandalf didn't allow the Balrog to pass in Khazad-dûm bridge.

Inés de inglés

LIVEWORKSHEETS