Name_____ Date _____

Pronouns

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun. I, you, he, she, we, they, me, him, her, it, us, and them are examples of pronouns.

Write the correct pronoun from the parentheses to complete each sentence.

1. Tia and _____took the newspapers to the recycling center. (me, I)
2. Mark went to the store with _____. (me, I)
3. Bruce is going to Grandfather's farm next summer to visit _____. (he, him)
4. Do you have any coins you could give _____for our collection? (us, we)
5. Lisa and Barry mowed the yard, so Dad gave _____$3.00 each. (they, them)
6. Benny said _____would meet us at the game. (he, him)
7. Maria realized she was late when _____ glanced at the clock. (she, her)
8. When _____ make hot chocolate, the water must be very hot. (us, we)
9. _____took us to the basketball game after school. (They, Them)
10. Mom drove _____dog to the veterinarian's office. (she, her)

Reminder: Read your work carefully when you are finished.

RUL

LIVEWORKSHEETS